Hansel and Gretel were poor and hungry. “I will find a way,” said Hansel.

At night, Hansel filled his pockets with white pebbles.

He dropped the pebbles on the path. The pebbles showed them the way home.

Next time, Hansel dropped bread crumbs. But the birds ate the crumbs.

Hansel and Gretel were lost in the dark woods.

They found a little house made of gingerbread and cake!

“Come in, dear children,” said a kind old woman.

But she was a wicked witch! She put Hansel in a cage.

“Creep into the oven,” said the witch. “How do I get in?” said Gretel. The witch looked in, and Gretel pushed!
