Blake wanted to make a red cape. He needed it for a fun game of tag.

"I will be brave and fast," said Blake. He went to get some red cloth.

He found some red cloth, but it had a bad rip in it.

"I must fix this fast," said Blake. "I can not be late for the game!"

Blake got some thick tape. He put a long strip of tape on the cape to mend the rip.

Then he got a pen and made a black shape on the tape.

It was like a bat! His dad came in. "That is a fine cape," his dad said.

Blake ran out to play the game.
The cape felt safe and snug on his neck.
