Brad's Bridge

Brad had a big, red truck. His truck was on a track. But a big branch was on the track.

The branch was a block. Brad had a sad sob.
"Oh no," Brad said. "The branch is on the track."

Brad had a plan. He got a brick. He put the brick on the track. He got a big push on the branch.

The branch slid up the brick. Plop! It fell off.
"Yes!" said Brad. His truck ran on the track.
It was a brisk trip.
