Fen's Pot of Bugs

Fen had a pot of bugs from the bog. She had dug them up to show the kids. Fen sat on the rug.

All the kids were looking at her. Fen got red.
She just sat. "Go on, Fen," said Liv. Fen popped the top off the pot.

A green bug hopped up on her neck! The kids laughed. Fen laughed too. "I got this bug by a log," said Fen.

"I got that one in the mud." "You got a lot!"
said Liv. Then Fen had a lot to tell them.
