Gus and the Mole

Gus had a huge bone. He wanted a safe place to hide it.

"This is a good zone," Gus thought. He dug a big hole in the wet mud.

Plop! A small mole stuck his nose out of the hole. Gus just woke him up!

The mole gave Gus a mad look. "Do not dig here," the mole said.

"This is my home!" Gus felt bad. He did not want to wake him up.

"I will go," Gus said in a kind tone.

Gus got his bone and ran to a big red rose. He dug a new hole in the mud.

He put the bone in and made it flat. "I hope the mole can sleep now."
