Jane's Safe Mix

Jane had a plan to make a cake. The date was for her mom.

Jane got the cake mix, but the bag had a rip.

A gush of wet stuff came from the sink and made a big drip!

"Oh no!" said Jane. "I must save the cake mix. I must make it safe."

Jane had a good plan. She got a fat block of tape.

She put a strip of tape on the rip to close it.

The cake mix was safe from the big drip.
"Now I can bake the cake," she said.

Jane was glad she could make the late cake for her mom.
