Printable Scholar Readers

Jill and Bret were on a big ship.
Jill could not sit still. She had to hop! Hop, hop, hop on the deck.
The ship rocked. Crash! Dishes fell off a shelf in the ship's shop.

"Hush, Jill," said Bret. "Please sit still." Jill sat on a bench. She was glum. "I wish I could hop," she said. Then Bret had a plan. "You are fast," he said.

"Can you help with lunch?" Bret got fresh fish in dishes from the shop. Jill had to rush the dishes to each kid on the deck. She did not hop. She ran with quick little steps.

Not one dish fell. Jill was done in a flash. "Thank you, Jill!" said Bret. At last, the ship got to the dock. Then Jill hopped and hopped as much as she liked!
