Max's Truck Trip

Max had a big red truck. He went on a trip down the trail. He went to see a grand tree.

But thick brush was on the track! His truck could not pass. Max got out of the truck. "I must trim this brush," said Max.

He got his ax from the trunk. Max cut the brush. He put the trash in the trunk. The track was clean.

"Now my truck can go," he said. Max went to the big tree. He sat under it and had a good treat.
