Pam's Pond Path

Pam had a plan. A swim in the pond! Pam ran on the path. But a big, thick stump sat on the path.

Pam had to stop. “Oh no,” said Pam. “I am stuck.” Pam put a leg up, but the stump was big.

Pam did a scan of the grass. She got a long stick. Pam set the stick on the stump. It was a big help.

Up, up, up on the stump. Then she slid down.
“I did it!” said Pam. She sped on to the pond for her swim.
