Pete's New Flute

Pete wanted to play a fine tune. He went to get his flute.

But the flute had a big crack in it.

Pete tried to play it, but the flute was mute.
"My flute broke," Pete said. Pete had a plan.

He ran to a huge box of stuff. He dug and found a long green tube.

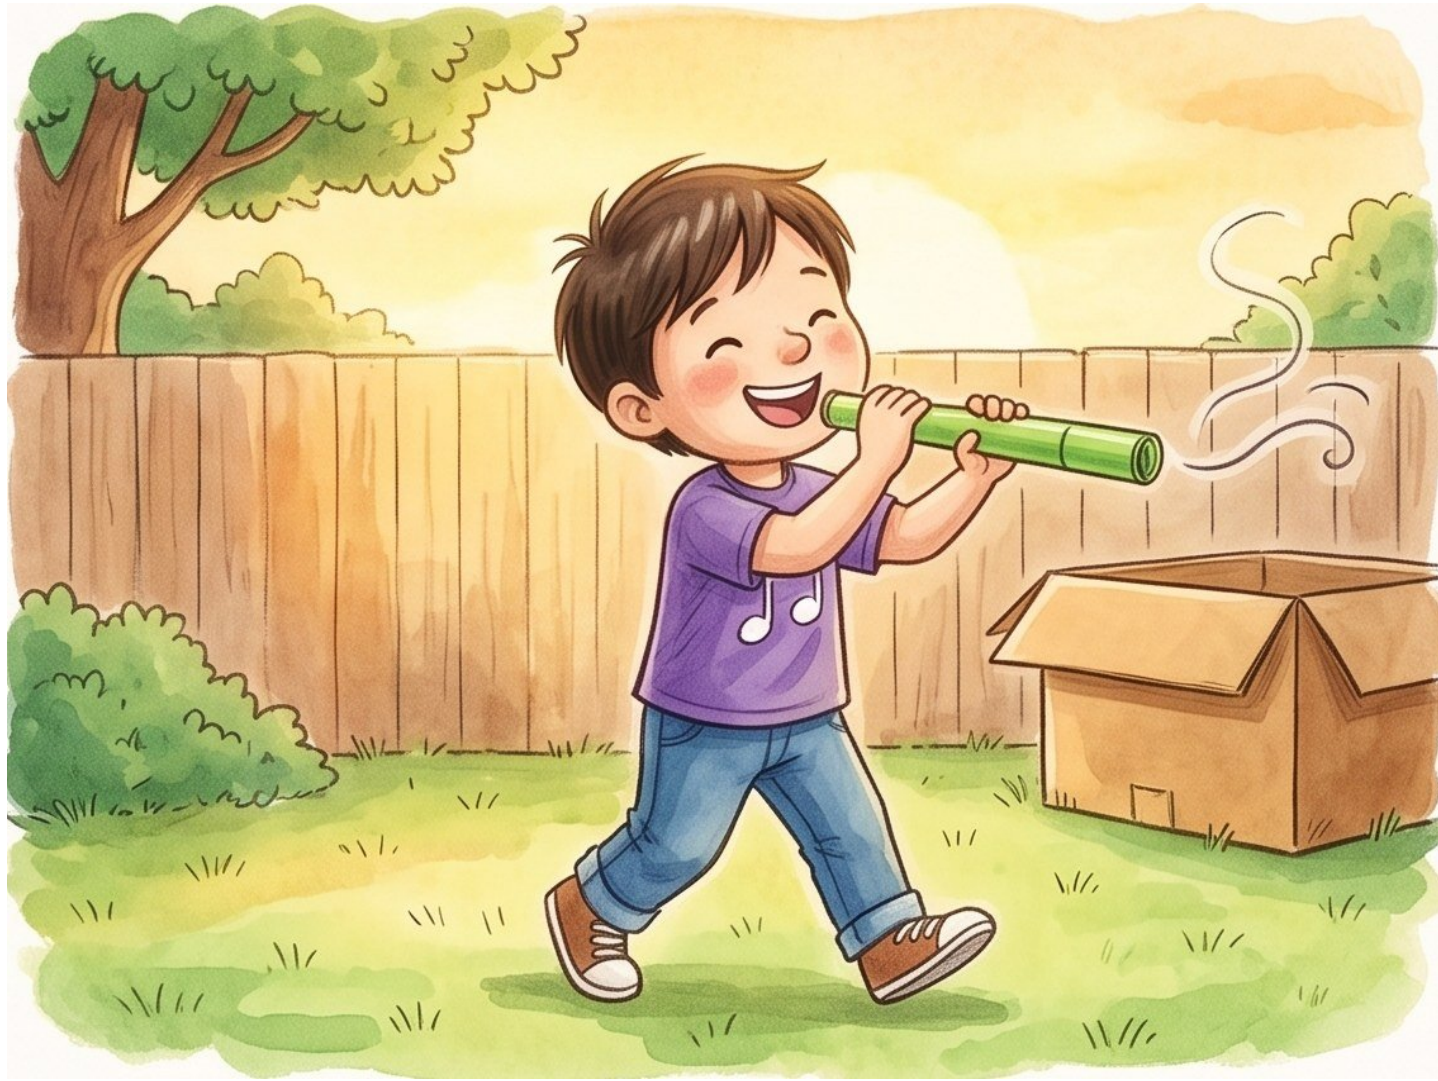

His pal Kate came up to him. "What is that?"
Kate asked. "It is a new flute," Pete said.

"I hope it can play a pure tune." Pete tried to play the tube.

A big hum came out of it! "That is a huge hum," Kate said with a grin.

It was just a tube, but Pete still had fun.
