

Pip and the Web

Pip the pig had a big red ball. He got it to go up, up, up. But the red ball did not fall. Pip had to look up.

It was in a big web! The web was up, up, up on two posts. “Oh no!” said Pip. “How can I get my ball?” He could see a long log in the sand.

Pip got the log. He set it on a post, just by the web. Then he got on the log to go up. He got up, up, up. "I can get it!" he said.

He got to the top. Pip did a rip in the web with his hand. The red ball fell down, down, down!
Pip ran and got his ball. He was so good.
