Scott Quizzes the Ducks

Scott had a pen and a pad. He ran to the pond to quiz the ducks for his class blog. He squatted by the ducks. "Do you like the pond?" said Scott. "Quack! Quack! Quack!"

All the ducks quacked at once. He could not tell what they said. "This is a mess," he said. But Scott did not quit. He had a plan. "One duck at a time," said Scott.

"Quack one time for yes. Quack two times for no." A big duck stepped up. "Do you like the pond?" said Scott. "Quack!" Yes! "Do you like the cold?" "Quack, quack!" No! Then a little duck stepped up.

"Do you like bugs?" said Scott. "Quack!" Yes! Scott was quick with his pen. The other ducks stepped up, one at a time. At last, his pad was full. "Thank you, ducks!" said Scott. "Quack!" said the ducks.
