Stan and the Wave

Stan had a plan for a fun game. He went down to the lake with his dog, Gus.

"We will make a base in the sand," Stan said.
"It will be a safe spot for our game."

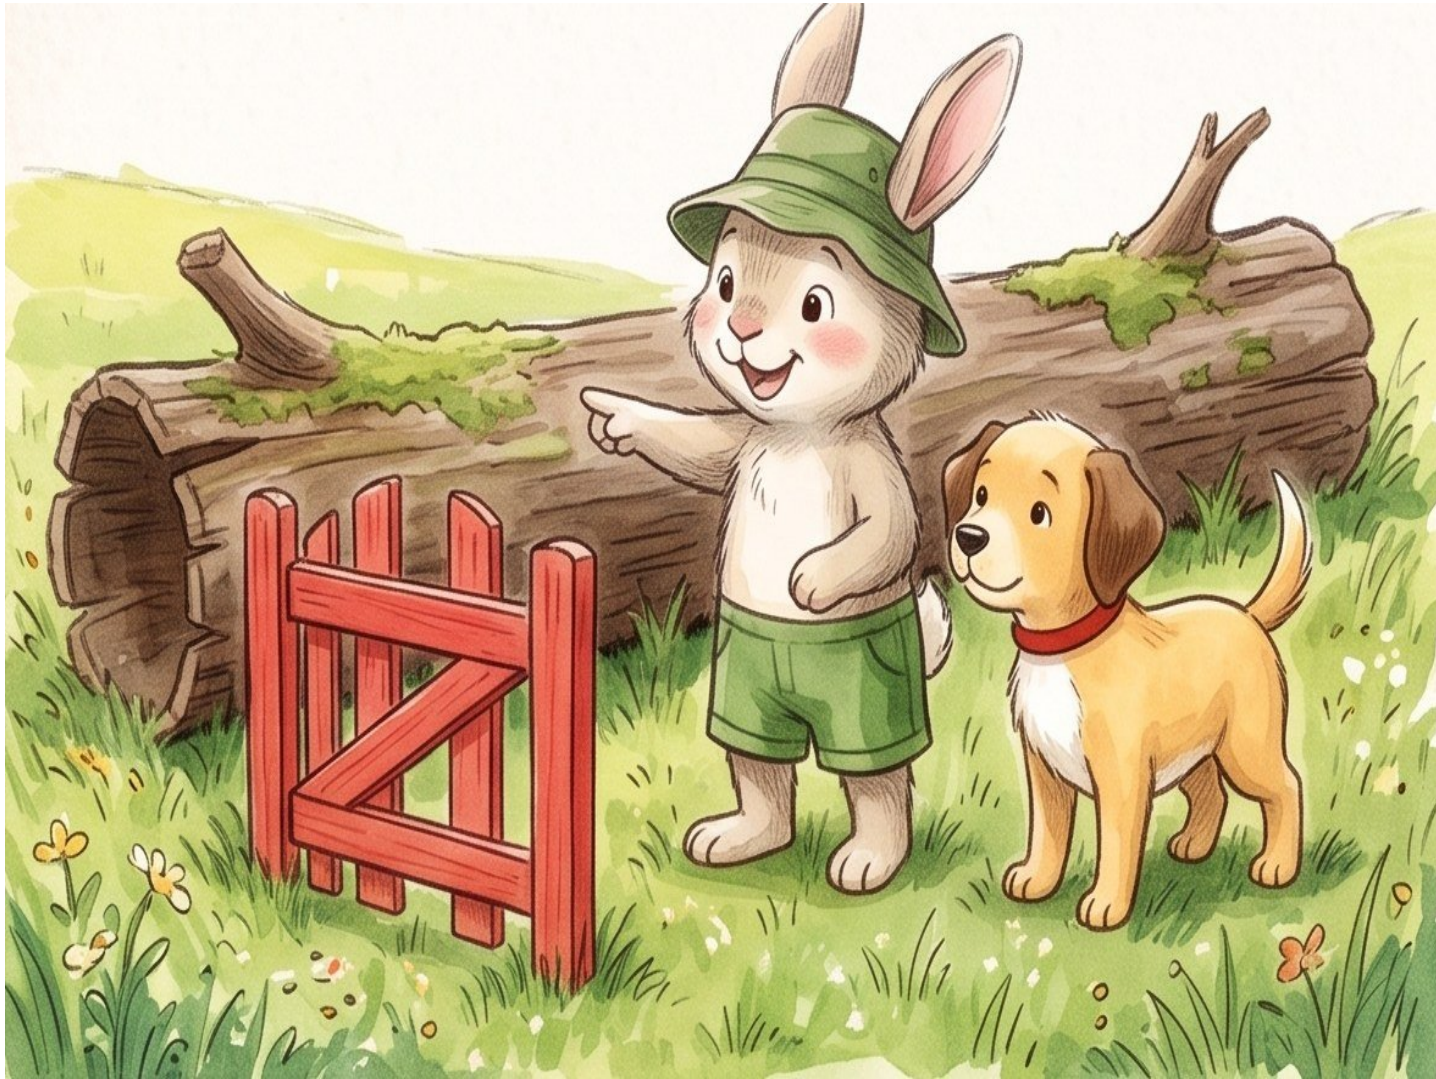

Stan made a tall base in the damp sand. Gus sat on the sand to look at it.

But then a huge wave came up the bank!
Crash! The wave hit the base.

The wet sand fell flat. "We can find a new base," Stan said. Stan took Gus up the path.

They saw a red gate by a big log. "We can run a race," Stan said.

"The gate is the safe base!" Gus gave a glad jump and ran.

He got to the gate first. Gus was glad to win the game!
