Trent's Big Catch

Trent went on a long hike to the big pond. He wanted to catch a huge fish for lunch today.

Trent took his new lure out of a box. The lure looked like a cute green frog.

He hoped it would trick a big fish. Trent sat on a rock by the pond and held his pole.

The rule was to sit still. He did not yell or jump so the fish would not swim away.

Trent sat for a long time. He started to hum a nice tune in the sun.

Then, his line had a big pull! The fish pulled on the line like a mule.

Trent stood up to pull it in. The big fish put up a fuss, but Trent held on and did not let go.

It was a huge bass, and Trent had a fine lunch by the pond.
