

HAWAII

The Aloha State

Waimea Canyon
Known as the Grand Canyon of the Pacific

Lihue

Hawaiian Monk Seal
One of the most endangered marine mammals

Pearl Harbor
A historic naval base attacked in 1941

'Iolani Palace
Home of Hawaii's last king and queen

Honolulu

Hula Dancing
A traditional dance that tells stories

Kalaupapa Peninsula
A historic settlement for leprosy patients

Pineapple Farming
Lanai was once known as the Pineapple Island

Haleakalā Crater
This giant valley was carved by erosion

Sugarcane
Sugarcane was a major historic crop here

STATE SYMBOLS

Nene
The native goose has less webbing on its feet

Yellow Hibiscus
Its flowers can grow up to six inches wide

Kukui
Its oily nuts were burned to make torches

KEY FACTS

★ Capital	Honolulu
🏙️ Largest city	Honolulu
📅 Became a state	August 21, 1959 (50th)
🐦 State bird	Nene
🌺 State flower	Yellow Hibiscus
🌳 State tree	Kukui
🏆 Motto	The life of the land is perpetuated in righteousness

Humuhumunukunukuapua'a
This triggerfish can make a grunting sound

Wailuku River
This river carries the most water in Hawaii

Hilo

Kailua-Kona

Kilauea Volcano
One of the most active volcanoes on Earth

Kona Coffee
Grown on the volcanic slopes of Kona

