

OKLAHOMA

The Sooner State

KANSAS

Black Mesa

The highest point in the state at 4,973 feet

● Guymon

Wind Turbines

Wind power generates much of the state energy

Great Salt Plains

A vast white salt flat where crystals grow

● Enid

Wheat Farming

Oklahoma is a top producer of winter wheat

American Bison

It can weigh up to 2,000 pounds

Route 66

This famous highway crosses the entire state

Rose Rock

This sandy rock looks like a blooming rose

★ Oklahoma City

● Norman

Oil Derrick

Oklahoma's first big oil well struck in 1897

Woolaroc Museum

A historic ranch established in 1925

● Tulsa

Redbud Tree

Its bright pink flowers bloom in early spring

Spiro Mounds

A major prehistoric Native American site

Oklahoma Rose

This dark red flower has a very sweet scent

Chisholm Trail

Millions of cattle were driven north on this path

Wichita Mountains

Ancient granite peaks rising above the prairie

● Lawton

Red River

This muddy red river forms the southern border

Scissor-tailed Flycatcher

Its tail can be twice as long as its body

KEY FACTS

★ Capital	Oklahoma City
🏙️ Largest city	Oklahoma City
📅 Became a state	November 16, 1907 (46th)
🐦 State bird	Scissor-tailed flycatcher
🌹 State flower	Oklahoma rose
🌳 State tree	Redbud
🏠 Motto	Work conquers all