

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
friend	A person you like and enjoy spending time with My best friend and I always play together during recess.
front	back
favorite	The one you like most of all Blue is my favorite color to use when I paint.
front	back
February	The second month of the year My birthday is in February, right after the winter break.
front	back
different	Not the same as something else These two shirts look different because one has stripes.
front	back
important	Something that matters a lot It is important to look both ways before crossing.

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
believe	To think something is real or true I believe my dog understands every word I say.
front	back
enough	As much as you need We have enough snacks for everyone in the whole class.
front	back
tomorrow	The day after today Tomorrow we are going to visit my grandma's house.
front	back
beautiful	Very pretty and nice to look at The sunset over the lake was so beautiful tonight.
front	back
because	A word telling the reason for something I wore my boots because the ground was very muddy.

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
school	A place where children go to learn We learn math and reading every day at school.
front	back
people	More than one person Many people came to watch the parade downtown.
front	back
caught	Grabbed something moving through the air She caught the ball right before it hit the ground.
front	back
once	One single time I visited the ocean once when I was little.
front	back
through	Going in one side and out the other We walked through the tunnel to reach the other park.