

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
unhappy	Feeling sad or not glad about something She felt unhappy when her best friend moved to another city.
front	back
replay	To play something again from the start Let's replay the song so we can sing along again.
front	back
preview	A look at something before it fully happens The movie preview made everyone want to buy tickets.
front	back
disagree	To have a different opinion from someone My brother and I disagree about which game is best.
front	back
mistake	Something done wrong by accident I made a mistake and added the numbers incorrectly.

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
rewrite	To write something again to make it better The teacher asked me to rewrite my messy paragraph.
front	back
unable	Not able to do something He was unable to open the tightly sealed jar.
front	back
discover	To find or learn something for the first time We hope to discover a hidden trail in the forest.
front	back
unkind	Not nice or friendly to others It was unkind to laugh at his silly drawing.
front	back
refill	To fill something up again Please refill my water bottle before we leave for practice.

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
prepay	To pay for something before you get it We had to prepay for the tickets online last night.
front	back
dislike	To not enjoy or like something I really dislike the taste of cold, mushy peas.
front	back
misplace	To put something where you cannot find it I always misplace my keys somewhere in the messy house.
front	back
unlock	To open something that was locked Use this key to unlock the front door quietly.
front	back
return	To come back or give something back I will return the library books before they are late.