

Spelling Word List

This week's 15 words (Prefixes). Each one has its meaning and a sentence that uses it.

- | | | |
|---|-----------------|---|
| ① | unhappy | Feeling sad or not glad about something
She felt unhappy when her best friend moved to another city. |
| ② | replay | To play something again from the start
Let's replay the song so we can sing along again. |
| ③ | preview | A look at something before it fully happens
The movie preview made everyone want to buy tickets. |
| ④ | disagree | To have a different opinion from someone
My brother and I disagree about which game is best. |
| ⑤ | mistake | Something done wrong by accident
I made a mistake and added the numbers incorrectly. |
| ⑥ | rewrite | To write something again to make it better
The teacher asked me to rewrite my messy paragraph. |
| ⑦ | unable | Not able to do something
He was unable to open the tightly sealed jar. |
| ⑧ | discover | To find or learn something for the first time
We hope to discover a hidden trail in the forest. |
| ⑨ | unkind | Not nice or friendly to others
It was unkind to laugh at his silly drawing. |
| ⑩ | refill | To fill something up again
Please refill my water bottle before we leave for practice. |
| ⑪ | prepay | To pay for something before you get it
We had to prepay for the tickets online last night. |
| ⑫ | dislike | To not enjoy or like something
I really dislike the taste of cold, mushy peas. |
| ⑬ | misplace | To put something where you cannot find it
I always misplace my keys somewhere in the messy house. |
| ⑭ | unlock | To open something that was locked
Use this key to unlock the front door quietly. |
| ⑮ | return | To come back or give something back
I will return the library books before they are late. |