

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
there	In that place or spot Please put your backpack over there by the door.
front	back
their	Belonging to those people The students raised their hands to answer the question.
front	back
your	Belonging to you Don't forget to bring your lunch to school tomorrow.
front	back
you're	Short way to say you are If you're ready, we can start the game now.
front	back
principal	The leader of a school The principal welcomed everyone on the first day of school.

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
principle	A rule or belief you follow Honesty is an important principle in our classroom.
front	back
weather	How it feels outside, like rain or sun The weather was sunny, so we played outside all afternoon.
front	back
whether	If one thing or another is true I can't decide whether to read or draw first.
front	back
hear	To take in sound with your ears I can hear the birds singing outside my window.
front	back
here	In this place or spot Come here and sit next to me on the rug.

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
flour	Powder used to bake bread and cakes We added flour to the bowl to make cookies.
front	back
flower	The colorful part of a plant She picked a bright yellow flower from the garden.
front	back
knight	A warrior in armor from long ago The brave knight rode his horse to the castle.
front	back
night	The dark time after the sun sets We saw many stars in the sky last night.
front	back
pair	Two things that go together I bought a new pair of shoes for gym class.