

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
describe	To tell what something is like using details Please describe your favorite animal so we can draw it.
front	back
decide	To make a choice after thinking about it I need to decide which book to read tonight.
front	back
measure	To find the size, length, or amount of something We will measure the desk with a long ruler.
front	back
address	The place where someone lives or gets mail Write your address clearly on the top envelope.
front	back
calendar	A chart showing days, weeks, and months I marked my birthday on the classroom calendar today.

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
remember	To keep something in your mind and recall it Try to remember the answers for tomorrow's spelling test.
front	back
sentence	A group of words that shares a complete thought Write one sentence about what you did this weekend.
front	back
probably	Most likely to happen or be true It will probably rain, so bring your umbrella.
front	back
predict	To guess what will happen before it does Scientists can predict the weather using special tools.
front	back
compare	To look at how things are alike or different Let's compare these two shapes and list their differences.

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
explain	To make something clear so others understand Can you explain how you solved this math problem?
front	back
observe	To watch something carefully to learn about it We observe the caterpillar changing inside its glass jar.
front	back
summarize	To retell only the most important parts Please summarize the story in three short sentences.
front	back
evidence	Facts that show something is true The muddy footprints are evidence that someone walked here.
front	back
estimate	To make a smart guess about an amount Estimate how many jellybeans are inside the big jar.