

Spelling Word List

This week's 15 words (Suffixes -able and -ible). Each one has its meaning and a sentence that uses it.

- | | | |
|---|--------------------|--|
| ① | comfortable | Feeling relaxed and at ease
The soft old couch was so comfortable that I fell asleep. |
| ② | valuable | Worth a lot of money or importance
Grandma's ring is valuable, so we keep it locked away. |
| ③ | possible | Able to happen or be done
With hard work, it is possible to finish the race. |
| ④ | terrible | Very bad or awful
The storm caused terrible damage to the whole town. |
| ⑤ | responsible | In charge of doing something correctly
You are responsible for feeding the dog every morning. |
| ⑥ | enjoyable | Giving pleasure or fun
The class trip to the zoo was very enjoyable. |
| ⑦ | reasonable | Fair; not asking too much
The price seemed reasonable, so we bought two tickets. |
| ⑧ | washable | Able to be cleaned with water
These markers are washable, so stains come off easily. |
| ⑨ | breakable | Easily broken into pieces
Pack the breakable dishes carefully in bubble wrap. |
| ⑩ | laughable | So silly it makes you laugh
His excuse for being late was completely laughable. |
| ⑪ | flexible | Able to bend without breaking
The gymnast is flexible enough to touch her toes. |
| ⑫ | sensible | Showing good judgment and thinking
Wearing a coat in winter is a sensible choice. |
| ⑬ | horrible | Causing fear or great dislike
The rotten milk had a horrible smell. |
| ⑭ | incredible | Amazing and hard to believe
The magician did an incredible trick with the cards. |
| ⑮ | adorable | Very cute and lovable
The tiny puppy was so adorable everyone wanted to hold it. |