

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
although	In spite of the fact that something is true Although it was raining, we still walked to the park.
front	back
thorough	Complete and careful, leaving nothing out She did a thorough job cleaning every corner of her room.
front	back
drought	A long period with very little or no rain The drought left the farmer's fields dry and cracked.
front	back
daughter	A female child of parents Their daughter just turned ten years old last week.
front	back
naughty	Behaving badly or not following the rules The naughty puppy chewed up my favorite pair of shoes.

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
cough	To push air out of your throat loudly I had to cough because dust got into my throat.
front	back
rough	Having a bumpy or uneven surface, not smooth The rough bark scratched my hand as I climbed the tree.
front	back
tough	Strong and hard, not easy to break This tough steak was really hard to chew and swallow.
front	back
enough	As much as is needed We had enough sandwiches to feed everyone at the picnic.
front	back
through	In one side and out the other side The train zoomed through the long, dark tunnel quickly.

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
bought	Paid money to get something in the past I bought a new backpack for the first day of school.
front	back
brought	Carried something with you to a place She brought her umbrella because the sky looked cloudy.
front	back
thought	An idea formed in your mind I had a great thought about how to solve the puzzle.
front	back
caught	Took hold of something moving in the past He caught the ball right before it hit the ground.
front	back
taught	Showed someone how to do something My grandmother taught me how to bake chocolate chip cookies.