

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
necessary	Needed or required for something to happen It is necessary to wear a helmet when riding your bike.
front	back
separate	To divide or keep things apart Please separate the red blocks from the blue ones.
front	back
embarrass	To make someone feel shy or ashamed I did not mean to embarrass you in front of everyone.
front	back
rhythm	A steady beat or pattern of sound We clapped along to the song's catchy rhythm.
front	back
definitely	Without any doubt; for sure I will definitely finish my homework before dinner tonight.

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
beginning	The start of something At the beginning of the movie, the hero was very shy.
front	back
believe	To think something is true I believe my friend when she tells the truth.
front	back
favorite	The one you like the most Pizza is my favorite food to eat on Fridays.
front	back
friend	A person you know and like My best friend and I walk to school together.
front	back
tomorrow	The day after today We are going to the zoo tomorrow morning.

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
February	The second month of the year My birthday is in February, right after the snow.
front	back
Wednesday	The third day of the school week We have library class every Wednesday afternoon.
front	back
finally	After a long time; at last We finally reached the top of the tall hill.
front	back
surprise	Something unexpected that happens The party was a big surprise for my mom.
front	back
different	Not the same as another thing My shoes are a different color than yours.