

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
affect	To change or have an impact on something The rainy weather did not affect our plans for the picnic.
front	back
effect	The result of a change or action The medicine had a calming effect on the sick puppy.
front	back
accept	To receive or agree to something willingly She was happy to accept the award for her science project.
front	back
except	Leaving out or not including something Everyone came to the party except my best friend.
front	back
principle	A basic rule or belief you follow Honesty is an important principle that guides my daily choices.

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
principal	The leader of a school Our principal spoke to the whole school about kindness today.
front	back
their	Belonging to those people The students brought their notebooks to the writing class.
front	back
there	In that place Please put your backpack over there by the door.
front	back
they're	A short way to say they are They're going to visit the museum after lunch today.
front	back
stationary	Not moving or staying in one place The bus remained stationary while we waited at the stop.

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
stationery	Paper and supplies used for writing letters She bought pretty stationery to write letters to her grandma.
front	back
desert	A dry, sandy place with little water Camels can travel across the hot desert without much water.
front	back
dessert	A sweet treat eaten after a meal We had chocolate cake for dessert after our dinner.
front	back
lose	To no longer have something, or to not win Be careful not to lose your keys at the park.
front	back
loose	Not tight or firmly attached My tooth felt loose and finally wiggled right out.