

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
accommodate	To provide room or space for someone or something The hotel can accommodate up to four hundred guests each night.
front	back
occasion	A special event or particular time something happens We wore our fanciest clothes for the special birthday occasion.
front	back
embarrass	To make someone feel shy, awkward, or ashamed I didn't mean to embarrass you in front of everyone.
front	back
committee	A group chosen to make decisions or plans The planning committee met to organize our school's spring festival.
front	back
possess	To own or have something as your own She seemed to possess a natural talent for painting landscapes.

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
success	Reaching a goal or doing something very well Their hard work led to great success at the science fair.
front	back
address	The location where someone lives or receives mail Please write your home address neatly on the envelope.
front	back
appreciate	To feel thankful for or value something I really appreciate how you helped me finish my project.
front	back
beginning	The start or first part of something At the beginning of the movie, nothing seemed unusual.
front	back
cabbage	A round leafy green vegetable used in salads Grandma chopped fresh cabbage to make her tasty coleslaw.

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
suggestion	An idea offered for someone to think about My teacher's suggestion helped me improve my writing a lot.
front	back
immediately	Right away, without any delay at all When the alarm rang, we left the building immediately.
front	back
necessary	Needed or required Bring only the necessary supplies for tomorrow's camping trip.
front	back
opponent	A person you compete or play against Our opponent scored two goals during the second half.
front	back
balloon	A stretchy bag filled with air or gas The birthday balloon floated slowly toward the ceiling fan.