

Spelling Word List

This week's 15 words (Words with double consonants). Each one has its meaning and a sentence that uses it.

①	accommodate	To provide room or space for someone or something The hotel can accommodate up to four hundred guests each night.
②	occasion	A special event or particular time something happens We wore our fanciest clothes for the special birthday occasion.
③	embarrass	To make someone feel shy, awkward, or ashamed I didn't mean to embarrass you in front of everyone.
④	committee	A group chosen to make decisions or plans The planning committee met to organize our school's spring festival.
⑤	possess	To own or have something as your own She seemed to possess a natural talent for painting landscapes.
⑥	success	Reaching a goal or doing something very well Their hard work led to great success at the science fair.
⑦	address	The location where someone lives or receives mail Please write your home address neatly on the envelope.
⑧	appreciate	To feel thankful for or value something I really appreciate how you helped me finish my project.
⑨	beginning	The start or first part of something At the beginning of the movie, nothing seemed unusual.
⑩	cabbage	A round leafy green vegetable used in salads Grandma chopped fresh cabbage to make her tasty coleslaw.
⑪	suggestion	An idea offered for someone to think about My teacher's suggestion helped me improve my writing a lot.
⑫	immediately	Right away, without any delay at all When the alarm rang, we left the building immediately.
⑬	necessary	Needed or required Bring only the necessary supplies for tomorrow's camping trip.
⑭	opponent	A person you compete or play against Our opponent scored two goals during the second half.
⑮	balloon	A stretchy bag filled with air or gas The birthday balloon floated slowly toward the ceiling fan.