

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
conscience	Inner feeling telling you right from wrong His conscience bothered him after he lied to his mother.
front	back
privilege	A special right or advantage given to someone Driving a car is a privilege that requires responsibility and care.
front	back
maintenance	The work of keeping something in good condition Regular maintenance keeps the school bus running safely all year.
front	back
recommend	To suggest something as good or worthy I recommend this book because the ending really surprised me.
front	back
separate	To divide or keep things apart Please separate the recycling from the regular trash bins.

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
February	The second month of the year My birthday falls near the end of February each year.
front	back
rhythm	A repeated pattern of sounds or beats The drummer kept a steady rhythm throughout the whole song.
front	back
definitely	Without any doubt; for certain I will definitely finish my homework before dinner tonight.
front	back
tomorrow	The day after today We are going to the museum tomorrow with our class.
front	back
weird	Strange or unusual in a surprising way That weird noise in the attic scared my little brother.

Spelling Flashcards

Cut along the solid lines. Fold each card in half on the dotted line, so the word is on the front and its meaning is on the back.

front	back
government	The group that rules a country or state The government builds roads and pays for public schools.
front	back
restaurant	A place where you buy and eat meals We celebrated her birthday at our favorite Italian restaurant downtown.
front	back
vacuum	A machine that sucks up dust and dirt I used the vacuum to clean crumbs off the carpet.
front	back
calendar	A chart showing days, weeks, and months She marked the field trip date on the classroom calendar.
front	back
neighbor	A person who lives close to you My friendly neighbor waved as I walked past her house.