Name _____

PRIMARY SOURCE QUESTIONS

Use the pieces on the page before to answer.

HARD WORDS

controversy an argument
pertain to belong to covenanted made a formal promise leagues an old measure of distance, about 3 miles hereafter from now on successors the rulers who come after them
the said lords, their constituents the rulers these men speak for concord agreement, harmony
boundary, bound a dividing line
Cape Verde Islands Portuguese islands off the west coast of Africa vessels ships
Castile, Aragon, Leon kingdoms ruled by Isabella and Ferdinand, part of Spain

QUESTIONS

1. Read Why. What were Spain and Portugal arguing about, and what did they agree to do?

2. Read The line, Portugal's side and Spain's side. Where is the line? Which kingdom gets the lands east of it, and which gets the lands west of it?

3. Brazil is in South America, but Portugal ruled it. Use the Portugal and Africa and Around the World readings to explain why.

4. Who was NOT asked when Spain and Portugal divided these lands? Name two groups, and say what one of them did about it.